

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. I now receive very few unwanted calls and do not want to revert to my previous status